CHOICE BOOKS.

THE MERRY GO-ROUND.

STORIES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

BY R. W. HAYMOND.

Author of "The Man in the Moon," &c. Small 4to. Illustrated. Cloth, $1.50 and the Box of Holiday Pictures—A series of small boxes and gift boxes, containing a great variety of choice goods, and with full share of outside decorations and of spirited and artistic illustrations, but the main attraction of which is the original genius of Mr. Raymond's genius for story-telling well known.

"One of the best story-tellers in the world."—New Haven Courier.

Contains some of the very brightest and most ingenious of this favorite story-teller's tales."—New York Mail.

THE NEW UNCLE TOM:

A FOOL'S HERAND.

BY ONE OF THE FOOLS.

"Not to be missed in the whole range of modern fiction."—Boston Traveler.

A powerfully written work, and destined, we fear, to do much harm in the world as "Uncle Tom's Cabin."—The great gift-book of the season, contains over seventy Holiday Stories, and choice songs known and loved.

THOMAS & CO. 100 Broadway, N.Y.—$4.50 4th-st.

"READERS who are familiar with the diary of Madame D'Artalay will remember that among the few happy hours in her monotonous life at the Court of Queen Charlotte, were those which she spent in the apartments of Mrs. Delany, and that she sincerely writes of the venerable friend in terms of warmest affection."

The correspondence of Mrs. Delany has a twofold interest; first as the unconscious self-expression of a very admirable and attractive character; and second, as a vivid picture of social life in England in the last century."

SAYS THE BOSTON DAILY ADVERTISER.
